

Protecting & Restoring Women’s History in our National Parks

Our national parks and public lands document the diverse histories, cultures, and spiritualities that are a part of our nation including those of women.

It is critical to properly preserve and ensure access to sites that protect and tell the stories of the incredible contributions of women in the fight for equality, suffrage, civil rights, the military and understand the highs and lows of our country’s heritage.

The nearly $12 billion deferred maintenance needs throughout our national parks pose one of the greatest risks to protecting sites that document women and their history and contributions to our society.

Examples of Women’s History in our National Parks with Deferred Maintenance:

Women’s Rights National Historical Park

State: NY

Deferred Maintenance:
$5,327,524.00

Eleanor Roosevelt National Historic Site

State: NY

Deferred Maintenance:
$6,179,478.00

Lowell National Historical Park

State: MA

Deferred Maintenance:
$20,627,205.00

First Ladies National Historic Site

State: OH

Deferred Maintenance:
$882,206.00

Maggie L. Walker National Historic Site

State: VA

Deferred Maintenance:
$702,422.00

Rosie the Riveter WWII Home Front National Historic Site

State: CA

Deferred Maintenance:
$209,100.00